

Feedback on electoral hoardings

You are invited to provide feedback on the use of public sites for election hoardings. Your responses will be used for the purpose of reviewing and improving the list of approved hoarding sites and the Council's processes used to administer election hoardings. For the questions below, please indicate on the scale to the right your level of satisfaction as shown. Please feel free to provide as much additional material or information as you like, either written into the boxes provided or as attachments.

Hoarding sites

Very Dissatisfied Dissatisfied Satisfied Very Satisfied

Quantity

Location

Space available at each site

Visibility of hoarding to intended audience

Perceived safety of site

Your comments regarding hoarding sites

Information and Guidelines for Temporary Signs

Very Dissatisfied Dissatisfied Satisfied Very Satisfied

Web page - relevance, "findability" and usefulness of Council election hoarding webpage

Council guideline for temporary signs - content, clarity, relevance and diagrams

Council staff - knowledge of staff and speed of response, including Contact Centre

Your comments regarding availability of information and guidelines for temporary signs in public places

Election Hoarding Approval Process (if relevant)

Very Dissatisfied Dissatisfied Satisfied Very Satisfied

Bond - layout of bond form, amount, return of bond

Issuing of approvals - speed of response, standards of communication

Approval and information pack provided - content, clarity

Site audits and response to issues - fair, reasonable, timely?

Your comments regarding the election hoarding approval process

Any other comments?

Please fill in form online or return your completed survey using any of the following methods:

By post: Fold and tape as shown on the reverse of this form and attach stamp.

By email to: streetactivities@wcc.govt.nz

Personal information collected on the feedback form may be used for the administration of electoral hoardings information. Information will be kept at Wellington City Council, 101 Wakefield Street, Wellington. Personal information will not be provided to the public.

1st fold here

Staple or tape here once folded

2nd fold here

Absolutely Positively
Wellington City Council

Me Heke Ki Pōneke

Street Activities
Wellington City Council
PO Box 2199
Wellington