Island Bay Parade was probably the most pleasant road to drive along in Wellington. Wide enough for car parking, cyclists and motorists to happily co-exist.

Now it is appalling — it looks as if something is wrong, cars parked far from the kerb! The move introduced more hazards rather than reduce them.

I would like to see the parade returned to how it was — no enhancements needed!

OPTION E:

My main objection to the other options is, apart from the fact that the footpaths are dangerous to elderly people walking and toddlers also, the loss of so many car parks is a great problem. We all ~~clearly don't~~ can't avoid cycle but we do need to get our shopping get to the doctor and chemist etc. Please reconsider returning all the Parade back to how it was - it is the absolutely best option.
